On July 20, 2006, the court held a final pretrial conference via teleconference. Charles Neff, attorney for the plaintiff, and Rebecca Thiem, attorney for the defendants, were present along with court and court staff.

During the conference, the court addressed the defendants' Motion to Disallow Any Claim or Evidence of Sullivan's Alleged Violation of the Prudent Investor Rule. Each party was allowed to present their argument to the court regarding the merits of the motion. After hearing the arguments and considering the brief and supporting material submitted and for the reasons articulated during the conference, the defendants' Motion to Exclude Prudent Investor Rule evidence is DENIED at this time without prejudice. (Docket No. 104). Furthermore, because the court allowed argument on the motion during the final pretrial conference, the defendants' motion for oral argument on the issue is GRANTED. (Docket No. 103).

Dated this 20th day of July, 2006.
